"HUGHIE" M'GOVERN AND "GRIFF" JONES BOX TO A DRAW AGAIN.

Local Bantams Go Fast in an Even Up Fifteen-

Round Bout in Boston.

BOSTON, Mass., May 13.—Hughey McGovern and Griff Jones, two of the best bantam-weights ever seen in this city, boxed a fifteen-round draw at the Criterion

A. C. last night. It was the first appearance of both boxers in Boston, and the exhibition they made showed that they can easily defeat any one in their class in this city. Both are clever and willing boxers, and from the tap of the gong there was not an idle moment in the ring.

McGovern, though he boxes like his brother Terry, who was in his corner, has a cooler head. He directed most of his blows, both right and left, to the body, with an occasional left jab in the face. In the first round he had all the better of the milling, but from that until the ninth round Jones, who is a fast worker, scored the more points, landing lefts and rights on McGovern's face and body.

After the ninth round, McGovern, who was at least eight pounds heavier than Jones, did the best work, and only a game boy like Jones would have stood the gruelling he received. Several times it looked as if Jones was "all in," but he came back in good shape and mixed it up with McGovern in lively fashion. So fast did the boys work that near the end of the contest both were very tired.

In the opening bout, Harry Snelling scored a win over Fred Vanuch in six rounds. Tommy Daly, of Brooklyn, put Joe Leroy, of Chicago, away in four rounds. Young Sharkey easily bested Frazer in eight rounds, and was given Elated by Tigers' Victory Yesterday Over New Yorkers the "Lake" Fans Turn Out in Crowds.

ON THE SLAB.

THE BATTING ORDER.

The Evening World.) MERICAN LEAGUE PARK, DE-TROIT, Mich., May 13.-This was the day for Detroit, according to every fan in town. "Wild Bill" Donovan was slated to be in the box when the Invaders and the Tigers came together for the third time, and "Wild Bill" had not yet failed the rooters.

The make-up of the Invaders was not settled until after the Tigers had played their half of the first inning. Griffith was a long time in deciding who ought to go into the box, and then Williams was out of the game at second and Fuitz was not sure whether his leg would stand hard work or not. The was confident that to-day's game was his all right, and paid no attention to the fact that the morning betting made the Tigers 6 to 5 favorites. The growd to-day was a record-breaking one. The victory vesterday turned head of every fan in town, and where they had been saying that the New Yorks were the best in the business, they now declared Detroit to be unbestable, even by the aggregation of stars in blue uniforms.

The early scores returend Derby night contest for several days. There has been no intimation of what ga: will- it will do with this case.

Another important battle scheduled to be fought to-night will be that between Joe Gans, the light-weight champion of the world, and Tom Tracey, the Australian welter-weight champion. They will meet in a twenty-round bout before the Pastime A. C., of Portland, Ore, for a purse of $1,500. Eddie Graney, of San Francisco, will referee the bout. This contest will in all probability be one-sided. Gans is too fast and elever for Tracey, and is likely to win in a few rounds.

"Young Corbett" will probably engage in a limited round bout before the South-Matchmaker Bob Gray, of the club, wired him a few days ago, asking him if he would consent to fight a good local boxer of Louisville for twenty rounds at bis club on May 19. "Corbett" wired back he would, and unless something unforeseen happens the contest will take place. Gray is at present engaged in hunting up an opponent for "Corbett."

115 Hart and Ruhlin. Matchmaker Myers, of the Penn Art A. C., of Philadelphia, has practically arranged a six-round bout between Marvin Hart, the Louisville fighter, and Gus Ruhlin, to be fought the latter part of this month. Hart is a great favorite in the Quaker City since he came so near defeating "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien at the Penn Art Club over a week ago. Billy Madden has accepted Myers s terms

Feltz in Shape. Tommy Feltz, the South Brooklyn bantam-weight, who is matched to fight Clarence Forbes, the Western boxer, a twenty-round bout before the West End A. These lads should make a great fight, as they fight on the same plans.
